Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad College of Law, Magna Cum Laude- 2024

Alexas Plotnick is a personal injury attorney with Morgan & Morgan, where she passionately advocates for those who have been injured. Prior to joining the firm, Alexas worked as an Assistant State Attorney in Broward County, where she gained extensive courtroom and trial experience. She also practiced civil litigation at a prominent Am Law 200 law firm in Fort Lauderdale, handling a broad range of complex litigation matters.

Alexas earned her Bachelor of Science degree from DePaul University. She went on to earn her Juris Doctor from Nova Southeastern University's Shepard Broad College of Law. During law school, Alexas served as the President of the Student Bar Association and her school's American Bar Association Representative. She was also an active member of the NSU Trial Association, gaining admission after finishing as a finalist in the NSU Law Closing Argument Competition.

Alexas is committed to fighting for those who have been injured and works tirelessly to help her clients achieve meaningful results.
