EDUCATION

Michigan State University College of Law - 2013

Central Michigan University - 2009

Born and raised in Metro Detroit, Marco Masciulli developed a deeply rooted commitment to serving his community from an early age. He pursued his higher education in state, earning his Bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University before attending Michigan State University College of Law for his Juris Doctor. During his law school tenure, Marco excelled academically and earned the profound respect of his classmates, who selected him to represent them as the Class Commencement Speaker at their graduation ceremony.

Upon entering the legal profession, Marco built a remarkably versatile trial background that spans both sides of the courtroom. Throughout his career, he has successfully represented both plaintiffs and defendants in complex civil litigation, while also gaining invaluable courtroom wisdom by serving as both a prosecutor and a criminal defense attorney. This expansive, dual-perspective experience honed his ability to analyze cases meticulously and strategically from every angle, giving him a distinct advantage when outmaneuvering opposing counsel.

Today, Marco focuses his practice on standing up for people who have suffered harm at the hands of others. He believes that effective representation starts with genuine empathy, taking the time to build strong relationships with his clients so he can truly understand their unique circumstances and tell their stories effectively. Defined by his sharp legal acumen and a highly determined approach, Marco commands the courtroom as a fierce advocate, ensuring his clients receive the dedicated support and justice they deserve.
