EDUCATION

University of Memphis 2014

University of Memphis Cecil C
Humphrey School of Law 2018

Rosalyn Dobbins is an Attorney with Morgan & Morgan who is passionate about helping people through some of the most difficult moments of their lives. She became an attorney because she believes everyone deserves to be heard, treated with dignity, and have someone in their corner willing to fight for what's right. Rosalyn is committed to ensuring every client feels heard, informed, and supported throughout the legal process.

Born and raised in Memphis, Rosalyn earned both her undergraduate degree and Juris Doctor from the University of Memphis. While in law school, she served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Judge Gina C. Higgins in the Shelby County Circuit Court of Tennessee. As a law clerk, she gained valuable insight into the judicial process that continues to shape her approach to practicing law.

Throughout her career, Rosalyn has built experience in personal injury, employment law, healthcare law, and government practice. Her diverse legal background has equipped her to navigate complex legal matters while keeping people at the center of every case. Returning to personal injury law allowed her to combine her legal experience with what she enjoys most, advocating for individuals and helping clients move forward with confidence.

Outside of the office, Rosalyn enjoys spending time with her family, traveling, reading, trying new recipes, and staying active. She is proud to serve the community that helped shape her and is honored to be part of a firm whose mission is fighting For The People.
