EDUCATION

Gonzaga University, BA with honors, Sociology, 2012

Washington University in Saint Louis, MSW, JD, 2017

Archer Mallon began their academic path at Gonzaga University, graduating in 2012 with honors and a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology. Driven by a deep commitment to serving people and understanding community needs, they moved to Missouri to pursue dual graduate degrees at Washington University in Saint Louis. There, they completed an intensive interdisciplinary course of study, graduating in 2017 with both a Master of Social Work and a Juris Doctor, blending a sharp legal skill set with a compassionate, client-centered approach to advocacy.

Today, Archer brings that unique combination of legal knowledge and empathetic counsel to the Morgan & Morgan team at the St. Louis office. Fluent in Spanish, they focus their practice on representing individuals and families navigating car accidents and personal injury claims, ensuring clients from diverse backgrounds have clear communication and strong support during stressful times.
