EDUCATION

University of Louisville Brandeis School of Law, 2017

Western Kentucky University, 2013

J.A. Sowell began his educational journey at Western Kentucky University, earning his undergraduate degree in 2013. Driven by a strong desire to advocate for others, he continued his studies at the University of Louisville Brandeis School of Law, where he earned his Juris Doctor in 2017. Upon entering the legal field, J.A. dedicated himself to personal injury law, earning early recognition for his exceptional work and dedication to his clients. Between 2021 and 2026, his legal acumen and client success earned him consistent honors as one of the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in Plaintiff's Personal Injury.

Today, J.A. brings his passion and expertise to the Morgan & Morgan office in Bowling Green, where he focuses his practice on representing individuals injured in car accidents. He stays deeply connected to the legal community through active memberships in the Kentucky Bar Association, the Bowling Green Warren County Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. Dedicated to helping everyday people navigate the aftermath of an accident, J.A. provides compassionate guidance and fierce representation to ensure his clients receive the justice and full compensation they deserve.
