Victoria L. Watson is an attorney in Morgan & Morgan's Washington, D.C. office. Ms. Watson represents employees in labor and employment matters, including cases involving workplace discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful termination, wage and hour violations, and whistleblower protections.

Ms. Watson brings substantial litigation experience to her practice on behalf of workers. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Ms. Watson served as Senior Counsel at Alan Lescht & Associates, P.C. where she represented both public and private sector employees in employment and civil rights matters. Before that, Ms. Watson represented employees and unions in individual and collective actions across the country. She has handled all aspects of litigation through trial in state and federal court and before administrative agencies.

Ms. Watson began her legal career in Dallas, Texas, where she represented individuals and families in complex personal injury and insurance litigation. She understands that workplace disputes can affect far more than a person's paycheck and is committed to giving clients clear guidance and the determined advocacy their cases demand.

Ms. Watson received her J.D. from the Louisiana State University Paul M. Hebert Law Center in 2018 and her B.S. from Saint Louis University's John Cook School of Business. She is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Texas, as well as the U.S. District Courts for the District of Columbia and the Northern, Southern, Eastern, and Western Districts of Texas. Ms. Watson was recognized in the 2024 edition of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America and was selected to Super Lawyers Rising Stars for Employment & Labor in 2025 and 2026.
