Christopher Sobczak grew up in Southaven, Mississippi, attending Bishop Byrne High School in neighboring Memphis. He completed his undergraduate studies at Mississippi State University, where he was an active member and Alumni Chair of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Committed to building a strong foundation in both business and legal strategy, Christopher went on to earn a Master of Business Administration from the University of Memphis in 2002, followed by his Juris Doctor from the University of Mississippi School of Law in 2006.

Christopher began practicing law in Shelby County in 2007, developing a broad legal perspective across criminal defense, bankruptcy, family law, and personal injury. He subsequently spent fifteen years serving as in house counsel for a major national insurance company, where he litigated, mediated, and tried numerous complex disputes across West Tennessee and North Mississippi. That extensive tenure provided him with profound insight into how insurance carriers analyze claims, evaluate exposure, and build defense strategies.

Today, Christopher puts that insider knowledge and courtroom experience to work advocating for everyday individuals and families facing difficult circumstances. Approachable, dependable, and dedicated to transparent communication, he takes pride in helping clients navigate the legal system with confidence and peace of mind. Outside the courtroom, Christopher shares his life with his wife and their two children, and he loves playing a round of golf, traveling, and cheering on Mississippi State athletics.
