EDUCATION

University of Florida- 2020

University of Richmond- 2023

Abigail Lahnston began her academic journey at the University of Florida, graduating in 2020 before pursuing her legal education at the University of Richmond School of Law, where she earned her Juris Doctor in 2023. Upon completing law school, Abigail launched her legal career as a judicial law clerk in Chesterfield County, gaining direct insight into judicial procedure, courtroom dynamics, and legal research. She then transitioned into public service as a prosecutor in the Richmond area, stepping into the courtroom daily to litigate numerous trials across both General District Court and Circuit Court levels. Handling high volume dockets and complex hearings sharpened her instincts as a calm, prepared, and persuasive courtroom advocate.

Today, Abigail brings that deep trial background and sharp courtroom preparation for the Morgan & Morgan team, dedicating her practice to standing up for everyday individuals and families. Approachable, attentive, and genuinely invested in the well-being of her clients, Abigail takes the time to listen closely to their stories and navigate the legal process alongside them with clarity and confidence. She takes great pride in channeling her extensive courtroom experience into client advocacy, working tirelessly to hold responsible parties accountable and deliver meaningful results for the people she serves.
